members of the armed forces, their dependents, and other beneficiaries entitled to DoD health care. The Defense Health Program (DHP) appropriation duty dependents, retired members and their dependents, and the eligible surviving dependents of deceased active duty and retired members. The DHP command headquarters, specialized services for the training of medical personnel, and occupational and industrial health care. Included are the costs The Department of Defense (DoD) has two integrated medical missions: (a) to provide, and be associated with the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniform Services (CHAMPUS) which provides for the health care of eligible active funding provides support for worldwide medical and dental services to the active forces and other eligible beneficiaries, veterinary services, medical ready to provide, medical services and support to the armed forces during military operations, and (b) to provide medical services and support to provides funding for acquisition of capital expense equipment in support of military medical treatment facilities, training facilities, and programs. Description of Operations Financed:

The remaining portion of the DHP appropriation funds procurement of capital equipment in support of the DoD health care program in military economically reparable items; equipment in support of CHAMPUS and medical treatment facility information processing requirements; and equipment medical treatment facilities and other health activities worldwide. It includes equipment for initial outfitting of new, expanded or altered health care facilities being constructed under major military construction programs: equipment for modernization and replacement of worn-out, obsolete, or supporting programs such as pollution control, clinical investigation, and occupational/environmental health. All of these activities are under the direction and control of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Health Affairs) (ASD(HA)). The ASD(HA), as accomplish the Department's medical mission. The Assistant Secretary's responsibilities include developing a unified medical program and budget, and the DoD officer responsible for the effective execution of the Department's mission works through the Secretaries of the Military Departments to developing policies that will allow the Department to perform its medical mission effectively.

104,485 military and 45,332 civilian personnel. This represents a decrease from FY 1995 which consisted of a system of 122 hospitals and 505 clinics, appropriation to support the eligible beneficiary population through a system of 120 hospitals and 511 clinics (FY 1996), and includes a workforce of workforce reflects a reduction of 4 percent each year. Within the DHP, the reduction of civilian and military end strength will be offset by decreased Force Structure Summary: The Department of Defense accomplishes its world wide mission by using the Defense Health Program (DHP) and a workforce of 106,208 military and 47,486 civilian personnel. The number of hospitals decreases to 116 in FY 1997. The civilian personnel requirements from overall downsizing, contractor managed care personnel, and purchasing care under TRICARE support contracts.

Establishing the right size for medical manpower within each of the Services is a critical issue for the DHP. Consistent with Defense Planning Guidance, the DHP has undertaken a joint study, including the Military Departments, Joint Staff, and DPA&E to establish solid requirements for medical military manpower based on readiness and day-to-day operational requirements.

III. Financial Summary ($ in Thousands):

capitation-based methodology developed in cooperation with the OUSD Comptroller and ODPA&E. Capitation is one of the major components of FY 1997 Budget Estimates, the requirements supported by this budget are the product of the continued refinement and application of the DHP's Operation and Maintenance funds and Military Personnel funds) used to produce the Department's health care services for eligible beneficiaries. This submission includes Operation and Maintenance (O&M), and Procurement funds. Consistent with the strategy we adopted for the the Department's managed care strategy. One of the unique aspects of the DHP's capitation model is that it considers all resources (i.e., both Population estimates were taken from the Resource Analysis Planning System (RAPS) version 8.1 (ge 2 of 5) services to eligible DOD beneficiaries. The above constant dollar per capita trend reflects a decline in available resources per user beneficiary. The provision of health care in the DHP depends upon both O&M funds and military labor. A per capita decline in either resource component (i.e. O&M and MILPERS), if not offset by an increase in the other component, reduces the DHP's ability to provide a consistent level of health care environment of fiscal retrenchment presents the DHP with a challenging task. Between FY 1996 and FY 1997, the DHP is experiencing a five percent health services prices, or medical specific inflation, and (3) population composition and changes. Developing a valid, executable budget in the current (BRAC) plans. Other than major mission changes, there are three main factors that influence DHP funding requirements: (1) general inflation, (2) The financial requirements set forth in this budget considers the effects of force structure downsizing, and Base Realignment and Closure real decline in per capita purchasing power.

Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) standards and the significant decline in Medical Military Construction funding over the past few years. This decline in Medical Military Construction funding requires the DHP to expend more O&M funds to maintain an aging physical plant to The Real Property Maintenance investment approach is based on a sound business plan that takes into consideration Joint Commission on evels mandated by the JCAHO. Our budgeted level of 2.4% is considerably less than civilian medical standards of 5% or more.

facilities. A more comprehensive performance measure for the Defense Health Program (DHP) is the cost of health care services per user beneficiary. The workload data displayed on the previous page reflects traditional performance criteria used for the direct care system of medical treatment This per capita measure has the advantage of integrating multiple workload factors and the cost of all resources into a single measure.

The total DHP cost per capita, O&M cost per capita, and military personnel cost per capita reflected in this budget, based on projected funding changes in FY 1996 and FY 1997 are less than normal inflation and will require increased economies and efficiencies combined with aggressive component to ensure a consistent level of health care services to eligible DoD beneficiaries. The DHP budget only addresses O&M funds and military and military personnel labor because that is the most rational way to evaluate the ability of the DHP to meet its mission requirements. DHP per capita components: O&M funds and military personnel labor. Per capita declines in either resource component must be offset with an increase in the other personnel labor is included the budgets of the three Military Departments. However, the DHP capitation financing model includes both O&M funds The DHP's ability to provide high quality, cost effective health care services to eligible beneficiaries requires the availability of two major resource management actions to maintain a consistent level of high quality, cost effective health care services to eligible DoD beneficiaries.
